What is this type of insurance?

The cancellation insurance can reimburse your costs if you need to cancel after booking has been finalized, due to sudden illness, death, divorce, employer filing for bankruptcy or if an unforeseen event occurs in your residence. The deductible is normally 10 %. If the cancellation concerned someone over 70 years old the deductible can be higher.

What is insured?

- ✓ The travel arrangements included on the same invoice as the premium for this insurance, if cancellation is due to:
 - ✓ sudden illness,
 - ✓ death,
 - ✓ divorce,
 - ✓ employer filing for bankruptcy,
 - ✓ unforeseen event in residence.
- ✓ Maximum compensation is: €3 000 per person.

What is not insured?

- ✗ Travel arrangements on other invoice.

Are there any restrictions on cover?

- ! Cancellation where the insured lacks valid passport and/or visa.
- ! Cancellation due to pregnancy.
- ! Cancellation due to known circumstance.

Where am I covered?

- ✓ Everywhere in the world.

What are my obligations?

- You are obliged to file a claim within three months and enclose relevant and correct documentation in order that Accept may adjust your claim.

When and how do I pay?

The insurance is paid at the same time and in the same manner as the travel arrangement is paid.

When does the cover start and end?

The insurance covers cancellation due to events occurring between booking and moment of departure.

Do I need the insurance?

This is up to you, but you never need multiple insurances that have the exact same cover. Follow the table below to see if you need to top up cover you may have through other insurances. If you do have multiple insurances, you may turn to any of the insurers to file a claim.
